About Rebecca Anthony

I have spent many years striving and living as a perfectionist. I know first-hand what it feels like to be anxious and overwhelmed. I also know how freeing and life transformative it can be to receive God's healing, and His loving grace.

I am a Certified Organizational Specialist. I am also a Licensed Professional Counselor and a Certified Christian Spiritual Director. My work, and life experience, assist me in helping others let go of physical clutter, negative self-talk, shame, and anything else that holds them back from living a peaceful and joyful life.

I enjoy reading, hiking, hosting parties, and dancing with my amazing husband. Jesus is inviting my husband and I, and our two energetic boys, to live a grateful, unhurried and hospitable life.
